The petitioner apprehends eviction from the properties occupied by him referred to in the writ petition. However, it is admitted that the authorities have not issued any notice to the petitioner in this regard. I cannot assume that the responsible officers would evict the petitioner without at least a notice. That being so, I am of opinion that the writ petition is premature and accordingly, the same is dismissed as premature, without prejudice to the right of the petitioner to approach this court, if any notice or other proceedings are issued to him.
